BREED THEATRE. Billie Burke in Eve's Daughter, from the Play by Alicia Ramsey, Which Was Originally Produced Starring

Grace George, Feature Today. Billie Burke is appearing today at Alicia Ramsey's Eves' Daughter, which recently was shown on Broad which recently was shown on Broad-way with Grace George as the star. The screen version was arranged by Margaret Turnbull, while the picture was directed by James Kirkwood. An excellent cast, including Thomas Meig-han, William Riley Hatch, Fiorence Flynn, Lionel Atwill, and others, as well known. The story is decidedly different, and the fact that Miss Burke wears frocks of the very latest design wears frocks of the very latest design adds greatly to the attraction. The third episode of The Eagle's Eye is also shown. This chapter is entitled The Piot Against the Fleet, and shows the German plot to torpede the flagship and cripple the fleet in New York harbor. Many of the most important facts learned during the spy investigations of the secret service raysaled in tions of the secret service, revealed in this picture, have never been publicly mentioned.
